Merrill G. Crandall was the third child of Myron Edgar Crandall Sr. and Eliza Adora Guymon. He was born on the 7th of May 1896 in Fairview, Idaho. Two years later the family moved to Springville, Utah where they lived in the two family home at 986 South Main, that was built by his father. The family lived here until 1908 when they moved to the Brookside farm which was approximately 1½ miles south-east of Springville.

Merrill attended the Springville schools and helped with the work on the family farm.

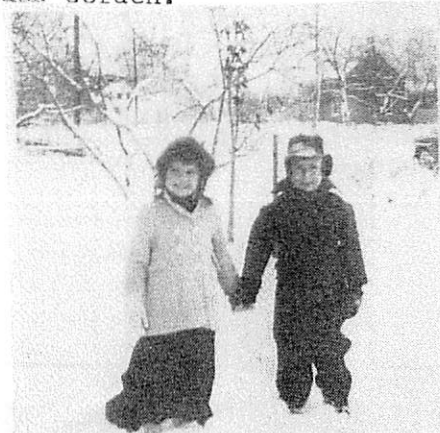

At the age of 17 Merrill married Mary Jane Christensen of Spanish Fork, Utah. They were the parents of four lovely daughters; Cora, LaRue, Hazel and Helen. Merrill was employed in the coal mines at Carbon County, Utah and also as a trucker. Mary Jane was a loving and attentive mother to these four daughters until her death in 1931.

After the death of their mother, Cora, being the oldest, assumed a large share of the responsibility in the rearing of the other girls.

On December 8, 1936 Merrill was married to Afton Reo Yancey (Madge). They lived in Pleasant Grove and American Fork, Utah. They had four children, Byron, Ray, Jill and Gorden.

During this time he was self-employed in trucking and sales.

In the late 1940's his desire for carnival work and travel brought about his acquiring his own concessions and amusement rides. During the summer months he traveled with his family to different locations in the Intermountain and Western areas. In the off season his source of income came from sales and restaurant management.

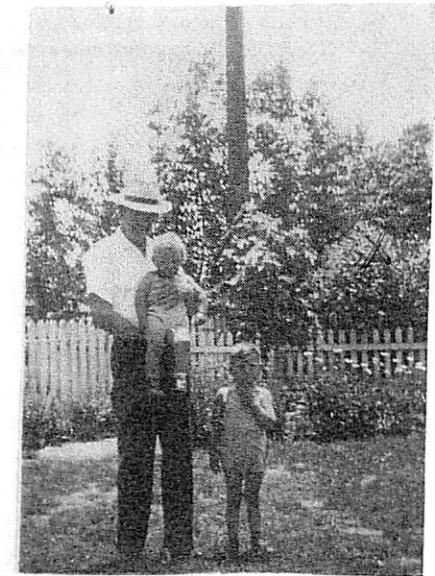

In the summer of 1955 he purchased a lease for the picnic area at Rotary Park in Provo Canyon. He and his family lived in a home there and managed the park for 17 years. He died of a heart attack in 1972. Merrill was a man with a natural feeling of compassion and understanding. His wit and humor were never ending. The memory of his love for Madge and his children will be forever in their hearts.

His wife, Madge, died of cancer September 25, 1976.
